DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 24 and 25 are not limited to tangible embodiments. In view of Applicant's disclosure. Specification page 16, ¶ [0068], the medium is not limited to tangible embodiments, instead being defined as including both tangible embodiments (e.g., hard disks) and intangible embodiments (e.g., carrier waves). As such, the claim is not limited to statutory subject matter and is therefore non-statutory.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-23 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Independent claims 1 and 15 are allowable due to the main processor: transmitting at least one reference address to the slave processor; storing the reference address to the slave processor; analyzing whether transmission data to be communicated to the slave processor is the type 1 data or the type 2 data; setting a relative address according to the analyzed result; and transmitting the relative address to the slave processor, wherein the relative address is an address of the slave processor in which the transmission data to be transmitted to the slave processor is to be stored, or an address of the slave processor in which the transmission data to be received from the slave processor is stored; and the slave processor: storing the transmitted reference address; and determining whether the transmission data is the type 1 data or the type 2 data by comparing the relative address with the reference address.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
